O R D E R

On January 8, 1999 the Clerk of the Court was ordered not to accept any further filings of dispositive motions (see docket entry 59). The Court allowed the filing of an opposition to a Motion to Dismiss Article 1802 Claims (see docket entry 68), but withheld its ruling on the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Unfortunately, the defendants filed two additional, unauthorized dispositive motions, which slipped into the record: a Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs' Civil Rights and ADA Claims based on a statute of limitations argument (docket entry 88) and a Motion for Summary Judgment based on allegation that plaintiff's position was a trust position (docket entry 95). Reviewing these motions, the Court finds that neither contains any lately acquired information, and that the arguments raised could have been raised just as easily over two years ago.

To entertain these motions at this late stage would be to sanction the piecemeal litigation of this case.

I. INTRODUCTION

On July 17, 1997, José Romero Villanueva filed the instant civil action, seeking compensatory and punitive damages in connection with the alleged discrimination instituted upon him by defendants. His federal causes of action arise out of the Civil Rights Act of 1871, 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983 and of the American with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C.A. § 12101.
